Welcome to Woodhill Hall and to the wedding of your dreams. Exclusively for you, your friends and your family, Woodhill Hall is a completely unique, boutique venue which offers flexibility.

Woodhill is yours for a complete wedding weekend experience. No distractions, just the wedding you desire.

Woodhill Hall can be hired exclusively for one day, overnight mid week or for 2 or 3 nights at the weekend. The entire Hall is yours for the duration of your stay and with no other guests staying at the same time privacy and seclusion is guaranteed.

Located 30 miles from Newcastle, just outside the picturesque village of Otterburn, it is an ideal location to create a magical country house wedding.

The Gardens

The Hall is surrounded by one hundred acres of private grounds and garden overlooking the picturesque Rede Valley. You may choose to have a drinks reception in the formal walled garden or a quiet evening drink in the enclosed Courtyard. The patio outside the Orangery lends itself perfectly to your wedding photographs offering a stunning backdrop of the Northumbrian countryside. There are many hidden areas to explore including a bird hide, meadow and pond area giving outstanding and quite unique opportunities for your photographs.

The Gardens

Couples celebrating their wedding with us are invited to leave a long lasting momento. Choose a tree from our specially selected tree nursery and plant it in our Wedding Wood. We can provide a recycled Slate heart for you to inscribe your own love note on and attach it to your tree. You are more than welcome to revisit us and your special tree.

The Marriage Rooms

With three beautiful areas to hold your civil marriage ceremony you can create the perfect mood.

The Hall is a beautiful, intimate setting for your ceremony of up to 20 guests featuring a stunning staircase for the bride's arrival.

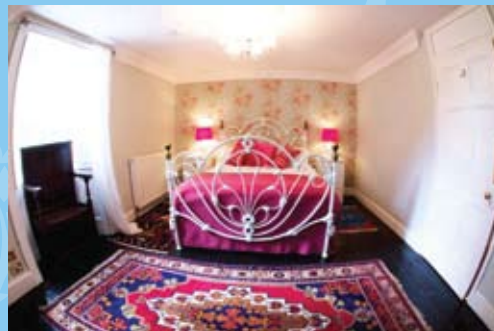

The drawing room is extremely atmospheric with the fire lit for intimate ceremonies of up to 25 guests.

For ceremonies of up to 100 guests, The Orangery is simply stunning. This recent addition to Woodhill Hall features two high glass atriums allowing light to flood into the room. With spectacular views across the Northumbrian countryside the Orangery leads out onto split level patios and stairs down to the vast grounds. Weddings can also take place outside in front of the Orangery with the magnificent backdrop of the Simonside Hills.
